
HELGA VOCKENHUBER AT PAUL SMITH HAMBURG

SEPTEMBER 2016

Austrian contemporary artist Helga Vockenhuber will exhibit a collection of impressive floral sculptures in the garden of the Paul Smith Hamburg shop during September.

Designed to perfectly compliment their surroundings, Helga Vockenhuber's oversized floral sculptures have found their ideal home in the picturesque rear garden of the Paul Smith Hamburg shop.

This is the first time that Vockenhuber's bronze and aluminium sculptures will be shown in Hamburg.

Themes of regeneration, floral motifs and a dialogue between sculpture and architecture are central to the artist's work. Consequently, the new exhibition, titled 'Contemplation', offers a unique chance to experience Vockenhuber's work in a fitting context.

Helga Vockenhuber was born in 1963 in Mondsee, Austria. She now lives and works between Mondsee, Austria and Pietrasanta, Italy, where she creates her sculptures.

Artworks shown during the exhibition are all for sale. For more information, please contact the shop at +49 40 3501 5273.

'Contemplation' by Helga Vockenhuber will be available to view in the rear garden of Paul Smith Hamburg from September 1st to 22nd.

*Paul Smith Hamburg
Hohe Bleichen 15
Hamburg
Germany
20354*

Contemplation:
a spiritual dialogue of sculptures
on the beauty and purity of flowers

by contemporary artist
Helga Vockenhuber

Paul Smith

COLLEGE
HP
paulsmith.co.uk

HOCHBLÜTE

Foto: Paul Smith

Ein Blumenstrauß von Paul Smith

31.08.2016

Mode und Kunst fühlen sich ja seit jeher seelenverwandt. Jetzt sucht auch Paul Smith die Nähe zur Bildenden Kunst. Im Garten seiner Boutique in Hamburg, Hohe Bleichen 15, sind vom 1. bis zum 22. September wunderschöne Blütenskulpturen aus Bronze und Aluminium der österreichischen Künstlerin Helga Vockenhuber zu sehen. Und wem die Blüten besonders gut gefallen, der kann sie auch gleich käuflich erwerben. Ich finde: eine tolle Idee, eine Boutique in eine temporäre Kunstgalerie zu verwandeln.